

I do not wish the Indiana telephone privacy laws to be overridden by a federal policy that essentially has no teeth. Please do not do this so that the peace and quiet that me and my family now has will not be destroyed. Telemarketers have no respect for other peoples privacy and personal rights.